It was during this time of mass soul winning that the Lord Jesus made a life time covenant with Urowoli. He spoke into her life of how He is going to use her, bless her and make her a blessing and to sealed this covenant He gave her the name Blessing hence she is called and known by most people today as Sister Blessing. History Of HLKV In year 2000, Sis Blessing Olubanjo shared with her pastor, (Pastor Sylvester Ojobo of Jesus Dominion International, London, United Kingdom) what the Lord have been doing in her life and also how He has been inspiring her in the writing of songs over the years. Her pastor advised her to get in touch with other brethren in Christ who can back her up in the release of her music album; while he sponsor the project. She did as she was told and they were five in the group. They were called God Lovers at that time. They later decided to go for a name with heavenly backing and not just any name. Then Sister Blessing got in touch her mentor-Prophet Timothy Omotoso (the founder of Jesus Dominion International). He asked her of the theme of the group and what they mainly sing about and she told God's servant that they love singing about the love of God and the man of God gave her two names to choose from and she chose the name "His LovingKindness Voices" abbreviated as (HLKV). This is how the name came about. To God be the glory. The journey To Breakthrough: 'His LovingKindness Voices' have been performing in and outside of the church but the fullness for the release of her album was yet to come. Changes occurred, although not planned by man but divine and followed by a short period of silence. Late 2005, The Lord spoke to Sis Blessing to go and sing with Sis Rebecca and at the same time Rebecca received the same message within her to do the same. They both decided to go to the Music studio for the release of their Music album. Although it was financially challenging and things were a bit rough; they were determined and in September 2006, The Music Album titled "Inspirational Melody" was released and launched in November 2006." What A Blessing! What A Breakthrough! We give God all the glory and may you be mightily blessed as you get yourself a copy of the Inspirational Melody Cd. Amen
