Cutting edge tracks that mix African, South Asian and American music, polyrhythms and modal music blend with subtle taste, humor and an indomitable zest for fresh sounds. 15 MP3 Songs in this album (70:21) ! Related styles: ELECTRONIC: Electronica, WORLD: World Fusion Details: The House of Good Juju finds multi-instrumentalist pan cultural raconteur James Whetzel wearing his DJ hat. And in his role as DJ Baba James he brings tracks in an eclectic variety of beats. There are tracks like About Love that mix North African and West African music with Bollywood, Bhangra, and Hip Hop, and tracks like International Bossa that bring Indian and African music to Brazilian electro. Also present is Space Tekyuman which re-interprets American swing through the lense of the West African Tekyuman rhythm, and also features clever and timely lyrics. And, in response to an oft expressed demand, you will find on this CD a lovingly mastered version of the popular James Whetzel/DJ Baba James track Washington State, which is a break-beat track dedicated to the many cities of the Evergreen state. This CD is not only fresh and funky and ready for the dance floor it's an truly original work of art.
