A Traditional modern country compilation CD with a Scottish flavour by this unique talented family, bringing you 18 original songs beautifully composed, including an instrumental, performed by excellent musicians. 20 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Modern Country Details: Back in 1974, Jim Wallace (a Dundee man) immigrated to New-Zealand. After immigrating to New-Zealand he started a family band "The Outlaw Band" and that band is still going strong today. Jim and his three sons "Jimmy, Robert Alex" have just released their second album "Old Stones". The Outlaws have also recently recorded a double country/gospel album (a NZ music Tui Award 2004 nomination) with NZ guitar Legend "Peter Posa" which includes the song "Oklahoma" a Jim Wallace composition that features on Old Stones... THE OUTLAW BAND The Outlaws are undoubtedly among the cream of New Zealand's Country-Rock acts today, with a fine pedigree of musicians involved throughout the last 25 years of the N.Z. Country music scene. The unique thing is that they are all a family.....the WALLACE family, father Jim and three sons: Jim Jnr., Bass, vocals; Robert, drums, vocals; Alex, guitars, vocals. Jim Snr, guitar, harmonica, vocals, has written the band's new original album 'Jim Wallace Sons', 'Old Stones' which was produced by youngest son Alex. Jim and the boys have travelled as a group in their own right, or as members of other line-ups to the U.S., Canada, Australia, Scotland and of course all over New Zealand, performing in shows including Johnny Cash, Kenny Rogers, Tom Jones, Johnny Tillotson, Peter Posa, Jimmy Vaughn and the Thunderbirds, Susan Raye, Suzanne Prentice, Tom Sharplin, Patsy Riggir, Shane, Ritchie Pickett, Gray Bartlett, Brendan Dugan, Jodi Vaughan. The group appeared recently on the 'Mary Lambie' T.V. show and TV One "Sunday" Peter Posa documentary work together now full time performing their own style of original music. The OUTLAWS are established in Northland, New Zealand and are armed and ready to come out of their hideout anytime!!!!
