DOWNLOAD HERE

60's influenced music with lots of vocal harmonies and great production with heavy influences from The Beach Boys, Phil Spector, The Byrds, Simon and Garfunkel and the Beatles. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Richard Snow is from the town that allegedly brought you Robin Hood, Nottingham in England. Having been in bands through the nineties he now makes music by himself with a little help from some friends. Some people like an album to have a similar sound all the way through but the word on this cd is eclectic. The overall sound is a potpourri of pop music history. Track 1 and 11 sound like a lost fragment of Brian Wilson's Smile. Track 2 could be a Phil Spector cut from 1966 Track 3 and 10 are a kin to The Byrds or REM at their most poppy Track 4 has overtones of Simon and Garfunkel circa'68 Track 5 is an imaginary joint collaboration between The Jam, The Who and The Beach Boys. Track 7 and 9 are The Beatles at their most folkie or Crowded House Track 8 sounds like The Police and REM collaborated on their early 80's tour:-) The instrumentation is a similarly mixed bag. Apart from the normal guitar, bass and drums, you'll hear: Organs, Harpsichord, 12 string guitars, backwards guitars, Recorders, African bongo's, Coconuts, Hand claps, coke cans, Biscuit tins!
