----- (more) Rob's passion is to offer worship music that reveals God to the unchurched and bridges cultural and generational boundaries. Many of his songs are also vehicles to release prophetic intercessory worship and the spontaneous "song of the Lord". "Romans 12:2 says 'be transformed by the renewing of your mind', so when I lead worship, that's a goal I'm pursuing - to draw close to His presence where heart and mind can be transformed and conformed to the image of Christ. As worshipers, we're pursuing the fullness of relationship with God, to enter the place of communion and intimacy with Him; to be co-laborers with Christ in intercession - reminding God of His word; and as His sons and daughters - participate in destroying the works of darkness" "I've come into the worship leader calling via a most unorthodox route" says the guitarist whose tent-making activity has been composing and producing advertising music for Nike, Wal-Mart, General Tire, Hardees and hundreds of other national advertisers. "I've been a Christian and involved in music since I was twelve, but in August of 1996, it's like this switch turned on and God started pouring into me worship songs - something I'd never written before. I began experiencing personal revival. Then doors started opening for me to lead worship at my church and other events and people really seemed impacted by the songs."
