A fabulous collection of guitar leading instrumentals. The composition and orchestration will have you looking for more by this master guitarist. 8 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Instrumental Pop, WORLD: Mediterranean Details: Shir Nash is a talented, master guitarist. His interest in music began at age ten and has continued to grow. His professional music career spans 28 years and his accomplishments continue to expand. Shir was educated in the Academy of Jerusalem under well known musicians; Egon Kerton and Stu Hachan. He continued his musical studies at EMI in London, where he also performed. His repertoire includes performances with the Philharmonic Orchestra in London as well as personal solo guitar performances. Shir is not only a performer, but an accomplished composer and producer of his own work as well as other performers. He has co-produced a newly released CD, entitled Picture Me, by the performer Rebecca, which is also available on CD BABY. All of the musical arrangement, composition and production were done entirely by Shir, under NTS, his production company. He has also written several popular songs for singer/artists currently aired on the radio and quickly becoming popular. He also instructs on many subjects, including composition, harmony, theory, vocal and guitar. He has authored and published musical instruction textbooks, including Flow with the Guitar, volumes 1 2 and Guitar Theory. In addition, Shir Nash writes, arranges and produces music for both the British Broadcasting Company (BBC) in London and for Israeli television programming. Shir's latest CD, East West, now available on CD BABY is a collection of dramatic instrumentals with unique styles that range from strong, tension filled orchestral arrangements as well as European sounds and even a touch of Middle Eastern influence, sophisticated and beautifully arranged. People who are interested in should consider this download.
