swamp Funk, southern rock, Funk rock, soul, r+b, secular gospel 10 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Funk, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: Bringing an ear for consummate musicianship and an eye for provocative lyrics, The Soular System combines the songwriting ideals of yesterday with the vogue design of tomorrow, while maintaining a variety of styles embedded in Funk. Sometimes political, sometimes spiritual, sometimes sexed to the nth degree, Rev. Desmond D'Angelo's "electrospective" lyrics stretch around the colorful canvas of sound painted by Ral's bass strokes, Mike Maloney's guitar spray and Jes Bradley's drum splatters. The music is then adorned with percussive keyboard melodies sculpted from the ivory of Danny Bedrosian and framed with the finest brass of Sir Rothenberg, Pedro Pizarro and the Damn Diz. On their new album, "All the Way Out All the Way In", The Soular System gets some production help from P-Funk keyboardist Danny Bedrosian as well as some guitar licks from P-Funk's Cordell "Boogie" Mosson on the opening track "R/U Receiving Me?".
