His fantastic debut N-TYSING (later re-released as N-Tysing Rekindled) and solid follow-up LOVE NOTES, both popular titles on CDBaby, marked the overdue emergence of a vocalist primed for addition to a list of the industrys best and quickly garnered much acclaim from both fans and critics worldwide. As a result, several tracks from the two CDs as well as the CDs themselves made there way to best of list and still enjoy frequent rotation on radio programs in both the U.S. and abroad. One of the best male soul singers we've heard of late, and an artist with a sound that should be getting him big play in years to come, declared a top on-line music resource. Before official release Ty Causeys EXPRESSIONS is already being considered his best and primed to prove them right. As on his prior projects Causey displays his engaging tone, great range and silky smooth delivery along with an apt compliment of thoughtful, moving lyrics that delve through the spectrum of life and loves best and most challenging moments. It is, as always, a joy to behold as he lays it down with a charm and swaying sincerity on winning cuts throughout. Cuts such as lead singles "Heartbreak Paradise" and "Pick Up the Pieces" - the tempting, "So Addictive" - "Dark Cloud" featuring solid work from standout guitarist/producer U-Nam or the very beautiful "Wishing You Were Mine." But also on EXPRESSIONS are even more memorable melodies, infectious grooves and his identifiable growth as a first-rate producer.

As premiere on-line site, Soultracksstates, Ty Causey has taken a strong, creative turn on Expressions that should provide ample material for both smooth jazz and UAC radio to highlight for some time. It should also accelerate his growth as one of the most enjoyable adult soul singers around. For the already established fans, the wait is now over and the best is finally here! For those new to the sound of Ty Causey with the advent of this stunning release prepare to be soothed into singing his praises and counting yourself amongst those keen enough to contribute to his continued rise!
