WHY do you want to create your own product ? Is it for the money, the status of being an author, do you love to teach ? or is it all three? Why do we need to ask ourselves this question.. Because, once you can answer this question honestly, you will know YOUR driving force behind WHY you want to be a product maker.. find your burning WHY, and the HOW becomes clearer.. Creating your own products can give you all this: 1) You get to help a TON of people with their problems 2) People have a lot of respect for product creators. Think about how people view Authors.. they respect them (most of the time) 3) You could be changing your entire life from this moment on, many people have got product creation off to a fine art and replaced their income..telling their boss where to go.. 4) This could be the start of your own product Empire.) It all starts with an idea and a few words.. The great thing is to create a digital product can cost virtually - Zero
