Electro rock with a French touch. Acoustic and electro meet suave bass and piano. Makes you want to dance and then chill out. 10 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Lounge, POP: French Pop Details: Agiusb was born in the grey suburbs of Paris, before the strip-malls and supermarkets. One day, when his father had had enough of commuting in the rain, they make a clean break and leave the city of lights for the south -- Marseille. Life doesnt improve much, but at least, theres the sun! Agiusb starts music lessons. He applies to the National Music Conservatory, attended exclusively by the off-spring of the local bourgeois big-wigs. No one wants him except for Mme Poisson (Mrs Fish..), who accepts him in her piano class. But the Conservatory turns out to be a nut house. Its hellish for him. They push him to take advanced piano with Mme Studer, ex-nazi from the Werhmacht who made him to work until he finally earned his freedom! Meanwhile, on the back of his blue moped -- Marseille is his. One day he meets Pompon, a freak who wanted to be cool. Together they create Dada 9, his first band. I was already playing Electro back then and he was into making all kinds of bizarre noises, we called it Cold wave. They scour all the local and regional clubs and play anywhere they can, but their concerts tend to provoke riots. Its funny that in France Rock fans always had a mind block against synthesizers And anyway, one day Pompon and I had to part; I went on with my music and he with his noises Agiusb. then joined another group Profile. They played in some pretty trashy clubs and rock festivals. They were all queens, high most of the time, but we had a great time and played well! One day my mother came to our show the drummer was wearing stilettos! wont even try to describe the others.. By the end, the whole scene was getting seedy, plus dressing up in pink thigh-high boots really wasnt my thing... I just couldnt take it any longer.. At that point Agiusb goes off to America (with American girlfriend..) and stays for a year. He plays at weddings, in malls, etc.. but he misses his blue moped (they dont have them over there). Back in France, and living in Paris, he starts teaching piano, You gotta eat, you know..!. He also composes music for reality shows (La nuit des hros), TV magazine shows (Envoy Special) and documentaries. And then he meets Michel Peteau who produces his first album, fittingly entitled: Waterloo. A few years on, he puts out a second albumParade. The promo concerts for the album are accompanied by psychedelic videos on a giant screen. Agiusb continues to write music for TV, (that he never watches, except for when soccer is on.) Thats about it. Now you know (just about) everything there is to know about Agiusb. People who are interested in Pink Floyd Moby Air should consider this download.
