A compelling acoustic album with beautiful vocals and guitar work...new folk woven with Americana....not to be missed. 8 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: "She's such an incredible talent for someone so young in years..." (Independent Songwriter Web-Magazine)

"...reminiscent of that early Dar William's wit. Keep your eye on her...." (Soundcheck Magazine) With 17 years of performance experience ranging from classical ballet and voice, to piano and musical theater, Emily Kurn is now receiving national attention as a singer/songwriter. With a voice critics call "compelling, rich, and sweet with an appealing break," songs which are "modern and original, yet echo the traditional," and her "naturally spunky stage persona," Emily is one of the Bay Area's hottest new folk/Americana singer/songwriters. Emily's debut album, "The Doorman," was released in May of '02 and received rave reviews from fans and critics. (West Coast Performer Magazine, Soundcheck Magazine, Northeast Performer Magazine). "The Doorman" was a featured album in Independent Songwriter Web-Magazine (August '02) and on the ISWM Radio Network, and currently gets airtime on numerous internet radio stations including Estrogen Nation, All Folked Up, and The Sonic Chronicles. Emily has received Best Performance and Best Song acknowledgements from the Northern California Songwriters Association (NCSA), and was chosen as the Featured Songwriter of the Month in Independent Songwriter Web-Magazine. (August '02) After graduating from Brandeis University in May '02 with a degree in Theater Arts, Emily featured as a "new face" at the legendary folk music club, Club Passim, in Cambridge, MA. This past summer, Emily had the opportunity to perform both solo and with Tom Prasada-Rao as part of the Americana Song Academy at the Sisters Folk Festival in Sisters, OR. Emily, a performing member of Indiegrrl, performs both nationally and in the San Francisco Bay Area.
