Rockabilly star Huelyn Duvall backed by Wildfire Willie and the Ramblers and Boppin Steve. Huelyns perfect voice with the best authentic rockabilly band in the world ... 19 MP3 Songs ROCK: Rockabilly, ROCK: 50's Rock Details: When true rock-n-roll swept the world like a volcano erupting, engulfing all before it, Huelyn Duvall was there. Recording at studios in Nashville and Hollywood in 1957-58 with the best musicians available, Huelyn is known the world over for your classic and cult favorite songs such as 'Three months To Kill', 'Pucker Paint', 'Teen Queen', along with the hit record 'Little Boy Blue'. He is also one of the vocalists on the million selling 'Tequila' session. Huelyn is still recording and these songs capture the feel and spirit of the rockin' fifties. His dynamic stage act continues to this very day as he regularly tours with top Swedish group "Wildfire Willie The Ramblers". Always a crowd pleaser, leaving the audience wanting more. He performs authentic rock-n-roll music the way it really was. No impersonations, a true original with music straight from the heart . His music influenced world famous musicians. A quote from Robert Plant of Led Zeppelin. "Jimmy Page and I used to ride around England in our teens listening to Huelyn Duvall songs getting inspiration for our music. The songs had lots of energy and were innocent and sincere". Huelyn performed with many top acts in the 1950's such as Eddie Cochran, Johnny Horton, Bobby Darin, Dale Hawkins, The Champs and other great entertainers. He recently performed to rave reviews in Green Bay Wisconsin at one of the largest fifties rock-n-roll festivals ever held. Born, raised and still lives in Texas.
