Contemporary Christian music using country, bluegrass and rock as the basis for the tunes. Some worship songs and some stories with one a bit controversial ("choices - hear the angels cry) about abortion. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Details: John Pratt and Glenn Adams (Sun Hill)(Sun Hill Studio) John and Glenn originally started playing together when they formed a Christian Worship Team to help a local church "plant" that didnt have their own worship team. Glenn was called away to lead a team to turn a warehouse into a church. During that project John and Glenn started writing contemporary Christian music. This cd compiles several of their songs and demonstrates their varied styles. Their goal is to provide meaningful Christian songs to singers and groups. Their music is made to be different from much of todays songs. By their own definition, John is more artistic and musically talented while Glenn is more the engineer and technical type. Together they can produce wonderful Christian music with a style that is meaningful and sometimes very direct or even controversial. Music is the tool God uses to warm your soul and open your heart, make you laugh and make you cry. Talk with Him through your music.
