euro/dance/pop 16 MP3 Songs POP: 80's Pop, POP: with Electronic Production Details: The "Artsong" ... the next frontier of music design within our reach, within our minds. Trusting Souls, featuring composer producer Normand Jones and co-author lead vocalist Tom Rogers, take us to the "Artsong" where creativity merges story lines and vocal imagery, where guitar themes evoke soundscapes of emotions, all to define the genre of entertainment value much coveted but not yet discovered until Trusting Souls' first Canadian CD release entitled "Forgiveness" entered the music scene. The complete artist is Trusting Souls. Their songs, sound design and conceptual approach to music is the "Artsong". Their style covers the globe, ranging from euro-dance to occidental ballads, from urban rock to absolutesongs. These two Canadian artists introduce us to the pure unrestricted craft of songwriting and new music expressionism. Normand and Tom founded Trusting Souls with the creative plan of making absolute music with no rules no barriers, making statements of words, wizardry, and wisdom destined for the attentive ear or avid fan of novel music forms such as the "Artsong" featured on the entire CD. Listen to "Luv Luv Luv Luv" or "Fishing in the River of Love", grasp the pulse and expression of "Mermaids" or "Forgiveness", or simply reflect on the poetic prose of "Room 106"; Trusting Souls capture for you the quintessence of new music, the front row seats await you... the next wave of music entertainment is within your reach today. The Trusting Souls group and CD concept started when Normand and Tom refocussed their energies from songwriting demos to artistic expression. this led to a much more satisfying end product and an abundance of alternate cuts because it was fun, open ended, and experimental. "Nothing like having total artistic freedom". The Forgiveness CD is a collection of songwriting, sampling and production experiments and a by product of turning rejection into a compilation of strong relatable song/sound stories.
