Some Media Reviews:  (5 stars) Indie Pick of the Month --Independent Songwriter Web-Magazine "...a twelve track burst of joy..." --Splendid E-zine, Justin Kownacki "With a voice that recalls a young Barbara Streisand, Valerie Ising sings of darkness and light over Rudy Ising's slick arrangements...songs like "Land of Make Believe" and "Troubled Eyes" evoke a dreamy fantasy world, part Portishead and part Julee Cruise, and rich ballads like Leap of Faith make perfect entries for the adult contemporary pop genre, rivaling even Sarah McLachlan...Ising's voice is powerful and her instincts for conveying emotion are strong...Ising really shines." --All Music Guide, Charles Spano "...listen to the 12 songs and hear the common woman giving her passionate all to the problems of the day. Love, loss, comfort, adjustment...Valerie reminds me of Bob Dylan in her vocal style. Utterly. She also has a hankering for poetry that is often a lost art in today's 'baby I need you' or overly clever songwriter's jargon." --MusicDish e-Journal, Ben Ohmart "Valerie Ising's BEYOND THE COMFORT ZONE reverberates with spiritual issues and carnal urges, boldly sketched by Rudy Ising's music and Valerie's poetry carved by experience." --Tom Semioli Allmusic.Com/Amplifier "...the self-produced CD...is wonderful. Her voice sounds like a mixture of Streisand and Mariah Carey; the pop songs are catchy, the words meaningful." --Orange County Register (Thursday, Feb 1, 2001)
