wonderful thoughtful art-folk 21 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Psychedelic Details: quotes about "Dancing on Nothing" by Dustin and the Furniture: "When I first got this album there were about 12 hours of sunlight each day here in Fairbanks, Alaska. Now we're down to four hours and it's always below zero. This album helps me forget that it's always cold and dark, which is the same thing that happens when you're in the same room with Dustin." -Thomas (Fire Island, AK) "I got 'Dancing on Nothing' in the mail yesterday, and I've been listening to it pretty much non-stop, and it's really, really, really good. His lyrics are kind of wide-eyed idealism mixed with eastern spiritualism wrapped up with some acidhead wonderings and some wonderful bits of dry humour. It's mostly finger-picked acoustic guitar, but there are a number of full-on electric-guitar-and-drums rock out moments as well, as well as organ, accordion, and weirdo auxiliary percussion." -Jeb Ebben (Dear Astronaut) "i just got 'Dancing on Nothing', and it's so good. like sooooooooooooo good. you know. like, i don't even know what to say good. and it's all professional and snazzy, too." -Shelby Sifers "I got Dustin's new record in the mail today, and it's rocking my life so hard. This CD is sooooooooooooo good. Dude, everyone who hears this is going to want to have his babies. I'm probably pregnant already." -Sharon MacNett "Dustin and the Furniture own the earth." -Partisan
