"...smooth sexy voice, 'Love In Italiano' is sure to leave you breathless...this CD is definately a winner." Romantic Times Magazine. "There is a new player on the pop charts whose talent has been compared to Dean and Frank - and for good reason." Fra Noi 11 MP3 Songs POP: with Electronic Production, EASY LISTENING: Mature Details: In this CD Filippo addresses the long-lived love affair the world has had with the Italians, their music, and their art of making love. The songs cleverly take the listener through the moods, trials and tribulations of an Italian man's journey through love, without explanation and without apologizes. So like an Italian. For example, when an Italian man wants to dance with a woman, he does not ask for permission, he simply offers his hand and once accepted leads the woman onto the dance floor. In the same spirit the songs vary from the frivolous "dance with me" exclamations of "Dimmi, Dimmi, Dimmi" to the "I don't know how I ever lived without you" sentiments in the English and Italian version of "And I Love You So." Not without their faults you will hear the pleas of forgiveness from a man who didn't mean to fall in love with a woman or have her fall in love with him in "Amore Scusami (My Love Forgive Me)" and the laments of another who has lost his love of a lifetime in "Guarda Che Luna." On a happier note, experience the yearnings of one who recites what he will do to please the woman he loves, given the opportunity, including singing to her about "Love In Italiano," if that would make her happy. Then hear about one who anxiously awaits his next rendezvous professing "I Can't Wait" to see you again. Incidentally, these later two songs as well as the first song on the CD are not only Filippo's sentiments but his originals, music and lyrics. Finally, true to the Italian man's sense of humor and fun you will find yourself dancing to an upbeat remake of the Rosemary Clooney hit "Mambo Italiano," and a New Orleans street jazz festival version of "L O V E" sung as a duet with famed actress and friend of Filippo, Ms Marion Ramsey.
