My music is really about important times, places, friends and family. It is a cross between folk/pop. Fun and sentimental. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop Details: My name is Mari Ann Callais and I have been working in some way shape or form in higher education since 1988. I have served as an assistant professor, worked in Greek life, and fraternity/sorority housing development. I speak professionally on college campuses primarily to fraternity/sorority members, but will also work with groups concerning leadership development and personal success. If you want learn more about me you can visit my personal website at marianncallaisorcampuspeak.com. Personally, I play guitar and write music. One of my dreams of producing a professional CD has come true. The CD entitled "Out of Focus" is now been released! I have been playing music since I was a kid and use music in every aspect of my life. When working retreats, performing as part of speaking on college campuses, at local establishments, and just hanging out with my friends and family! Hope this music touches your heart and reminds you of times that you have spent with people who are important to you!
