As a young man he began his quest to find his calling. He listened to music, which encouraged him to want to play instruments and sing. As Robert started playing the drums, percussions and piano which he was self-taught, this inspired him more to create his own songs. This influenced him greatly! He went on to play with many bands as a drummer opening up for such jazz artists as: Pieces of a Dream, Craig T. Cooper, Noel Pointer, Everett Harp, Marcus Miller, Wilden Felder, and R&B great Carl Carlton and many others. When the Lord came into his life, he was moved to play and write spiritual songs. As a drummer he joined a gospel group which allowed him the opportunity to play and open for Gospel Artists such as: Shirley Caesar, the late Mattie Moss Clark, The Clark Sisters, The Winans, Rance Allen, The Williams Brothers, Ester Smith, Marvin Miller, James Mark, Derrick Brinkley, Tessie Hill, Lydia Wright, Tamika Sample, Earnest Pugh and many others. Every day he gives thanks to God for the people who inspired and paved the way before him. The Lord gave Robert a very clear vision of what he must do - "praise the Lord in song with all his heart", so that others can receive a word from the Lord.
