Read ahead I think you will find a very different kind of guitarist. Diversity in stylings has always been a musical goal of mine from light classical to Jazz, to Fingerstyle patriotic and then my favorite the smooth Jazz / Light Rock styles on my 4th CD FOR A KING. That CD by the way features up to 13 guitars on each track, listen and hear all the harmonies and subtle lines. Though I still own and manage 2 very successful companies, my passion in sharing my music; I cant wait to get out there and play more and record more to share ! Rock on and thanks for sharing !! Starting on classical and flamenco stylings, I quickly developed a taste for classic rock styles as well as bluesy sweetly picked jazz lines, and expressive rock melodies. Its a real priviledge to share my music in Churches for the Glory of God, and I help anywhere I can, playing special music or in the Praise Team. In 1978 I acquired my first guitar, a Martin acoustic. It was actually given to my Mother, a classical pianist, as a birthday gift a year earlier and she left it in the closet. I think it was the 8th grade or so. I was taking a guitar class in school and ended up co-teaching the class by the end of the semester. Chords and scales and playing by ear just sort of seem to come naturally, and my very first ear training was from the Flamenco artist SABICAS and the rocker Edward Van Halen. I recall a fun time during my long hair days in the early 80s when I was the only kid in my high school that could play VanHalens eruption note-for note. I played guitar and bass in the Jazz band in high school, and then applied to the reknown Valley Forge Military Academy Regimental Band. After a tense audition on 4 instruments, I received a Music Scholarship playing Euphonium horn in the Military Marching Band as well as guitar and bass in the Jazz Band. After graduation in 1985 I joined the United States Army Reserve Band for several years while in college, earning an Officers Commission later on from the University of Pennsylvania. I have an incredible collection of vintage axes, some signed by my favorite players such as Les Paul himself, Earl Klugh, Lee Ritenour, Chuck Loeb, Mike Stern, Eddie VanHalen and Brian May of Queen ! see this site for pics and info robinlahiri.com Check out All 4 of my CDs here on CD BABY: Strings of Praise light classical meditation solo guitar Guitars of NOBLE Ventures Jazz duo guitar and full band Fusion flavored guitar trax Power Praise God and Country Fingerstyle guitar July 4th and Summer hymns and National favorites in a unique chord melody style FOR A KING Rockin Guitar Christmas up to 13 Rockin guitars on each track, jazz, rock, chord melody, classical and blistering triple harmony lines.
