Brings together reggae, ragga, soca, calypso, African highlife and a taste of rock for a wicked "world beat" sound. This cd celebrates the "one love" vibes at the countless reggae festivals where SEEFARI has performed over the years. 6 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, WORLD: World Beat Details: Festival is the latest release from reggae artist SEEFARI. The CD maxi-single features four different mixes of the world beat song Festival" and two different mixes of the reggae-rock tune Hold it down (Dont stop)" Festival" is the first production from SEEFARI's new PowerSource" studio in Wilberforce, Ohio. All words and music on the CD were written by Tom SEEFARI" Carroll, who also sang all the vocal parts, played all the instruments and engineered, mixed and produced the project. The original inspiration for Festival" was the Dayton Third World Reggae Festival, the Midwests longest-running reggae festival. SEEFARI has performed at the DTWRF every year since its inception in 1988. The festival has come to be closely associated with SEEFARI, who has become a favorite on the festival circuit and has performed at countless festivals across the USA.. The song is a joyous celebration of festivals everywhere and the power of music to unite people all over the world. Music is a language that is universal. Everywhere you go, they have a festival! - SEEFARI
