Uplifting churrigueresque '60s pop with a modernistic twist. 11 MP3 Songs POP: California Pop, POP: 60's Pop What's It All Astir Songs Details: Having reinforced up a significant hush-hush following through his two imaginative churrigueresque indie pop albums ("A Beautiful Story" and "Happy To Be Here") and an array of singles and EPs, Andrew has finally come of age with his brand new full-length CD, "What's It All Astir?" Roger Neill's lush pop orchestrations (with real strings!) are still there, but there's a bit of an edge on "What's It All Astir?" making it Andrew's own "Imperial Bedroom." Helping Andrew this time around are Ric Menck of Velvet Crush fame on drums, Kristian Hoffman on piano, David Gray producer David Nolte on bass, famed LA jack-of-all-trades Probyn Gregory on horns, along with a host of others. Without even knowing it, many CD buyers may already have dozens of CDs in their collection with the name Andrew Sandoval on them, as Andrew has worked on reissues of Elvis Costello, The Beach Boys, The Band, The Kinks among hundreds of artists. Andrew has also authored a definitive book on The Monkees which will be released in the spring of 2005.
