Mr. Cousins was introduced on the music scene in late 2002 with the eclectic Cd LAID BACK COOL. This Cd was followed by DIRECT SUNLIGHT, a synthesis of electric acoustic rock soul. And now in 2008 the masterpiece will be released. WET HEAT combines true style with modern day imagery. Combining hip hop, rock, soul and great storytelling, this album brings enjoyment to listening to albums again. The first single release is a song entitled Girl. This song has been described as an electro funk work out. Moving in the direction of Kanye West, Prince and 80s synthesizers, this song takes off on its own with that memorable chorus hook talking about no other than a girl. Song titles on this disc worth your money are Room Or A Bed, I Need You, Is This Something, Do You Have A Minute, We Go All Out For Our People, And Then There Is You, Aim Your Weapon and much more. Songs from this album contain a heavy element of both rock and hip hop. Its almost as if The Rolling Stones and Goodie Mob happened to be in the same recording studio sharing ideas. Mr. Cousins, a multi-instrumentalist, plays most of the instruments himself on the album and does not sample a lick. Special guests include guitarist Khalid Harvey on the songs And Then There Is You Room Or A Bed. Khalid Harvey adds impressive lead guitar runs melodically up and down the guitar fret board. Chicago born female rapper/singer Nemiss also performs on this album. She holds her own on the songs Do You Have A Minute?, the boy meets girl song groove of the year and Love Deception, a tricky love triangle mixed with visuals of secrets and lies. Noted author, poet and spoken word artist DuEwa makes a very strong music recording debut on the song of so much soul And Then There Is You adding a serene vocal rap that is sure to please. A longtime collaborator with Boo Boo Cousins, she shines. This album which was recorded over a 3 month period of time deals with subject matters ranging from boy meets girl motifs, our time in life, soldiers in war and intimate relationships.
