Burnt Fur's third single "Homage" from their new wave debut UNFURL pairs searing guitar hooks with drum machines to create an upbeat yet brooding account of rejection and perseverance. 3 MP3 Songs
ELECTRONIC: Synthpop, ELECTRONIC: Electro Details: "Homage" is the final single released by Burnt Fur in support of their debut album UNFURL (released February 2008). Full of searing guitars and hooks reminiscent of Interpol and The Smiths, the band include drum machines and brooding lyrics to create a catchy and personal account of rejection and perseverance. Combined with their previous singles Radiate (November 2007) and Vitriol (May 2007), the three singles showcase the bands ability to both rock and dance with the best New Wave acts. B-sides feature a live-in-studio version of album track Warm All Day (May Day) and the bands Halloween favorite Cats. The title track Homage was incidentally recorded on Halloween 2007. The b-sides show off the brighter side of Burnt Furs canon, as well as their ability to transfer their new wave sound to a live setting. Homage is a limited release of 100 copies. People who are interested in New Order The Cure Interpol should consider this download.
