Dark electronica, slow and hypnotizing dance rock. 6 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Techno, ELECTRONIC: Industrial Details: Everpresent is an electronica-rock project that will leave you thirsty for more sensual, sonic darkness. EP brings forth a hybrid of atmospheres and moods to create this hypnosis. This debut EP was produced/recorded April-October 2002, and was released on November 1st, 2002. It is an interesting mix of electronica, rock, ambient, techno, and goth. Matthew Cahoon provides lead and background vocals, keyboards, sequencing, and drums on this EP. This first EP also features several session players, including the exceptional rock/blues guitarist, Matt O'Gwin. The vibe is one of underground accessibility, a shadowy, brooding EP that produced the highly requested "Don't Stop" at live shows in months following its release. This EP is currently available in Boston at the Virgin Megastore, Newbury Comics (Harvard and Back Bay locations). It is also available on 23 digital distribution services in addition to CDBaby. "Everpresent is a tantalizing fusion of electronica and rock that merges exciting lyrics and strong instrumentals." -Adrian Ross, former promoter for Def Jam Records "Like a work by Salvador Dali, you'll discover something new each time." -Darcie Wicknick, Music Business Consultant
