Rootsy-folk-country, with a hint of jazz. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Americana
Details: Hamilton-born Greg Hobbs has established himself in Toronto's folk/roots music scene with honest and entertaining lyrics that bring out the beauty of blue moods and the humour of seemingly dark situations. He is a treasure of a songwriter. Hobbs is about to release his fifth independent CD. "Thunder and Dust" co-stars Darcy Yates on bass, and Christine Bougie on Drums, guitars and keys. With his musical collaborators, Hobbs has developed a fresh sound fusing folk and country with even a little hint of jazz. He currently lives in Toronto, where he was named one of the local must-sees by the Toronto Star. He was also nominated for an Toronto Independent Music Award Hobbs has played with shows with uber-troubadour Fred Eaglesmith, Canadian alt-country diva Carolyn Mark, The Cash Brothers, Erik Andersen, Odetta and others.
