Hot Monkey Love is a true new blues band with a rock edge that captures the heart and soul of legendary blues artists, such as Muddy Waters, Howlin' Wolf and John Lee Hooker, with the groove and vocals of British blues bands, like the Stones and Free 13 MP3 Songs BLUES: Rockin' Blues, ROCK: Roots Rock Details: Hot Monkey Love are deeply saddened to report that the Head Monkey, drummer extraordinaire, Frankie "Spider" LaRocka, passed away on May 12, 2005, joining rock-n-roll royalty in the ultimate jam session in the sky. Go to our website at hotmonkeylove.us for more info. Band leader, Frankie LaRocka (David Johansen, Bryan Adams, Jon Bon Jovi) is joined by Jack O'Neill on vocals, Bob Del Rosso on guitar, and Jordan Lee on bass with a guest appearance by Earl Slick (David Bowie Band) to form a true blues band that has earned the respect of many on today's circuit. Hot Monkey Love captures the heart and soul of legendary blues musicians in this 12-noon to 12-midnight recording. The talents of these four artists have earned them the success of performing, recording and touring with Bryan Adams, David Johansen and Bon Jovi, as well as Luther Vandross, David Sanborn, Scotty Moore and D.J. Fontana. Now combining their passion for the blues, Jack "Beau Jack" O'Neill, Frankie "Spider" LaRocka, "Cowboy" Bob Del Rosso and "Jumpin'" Jordan Lee have come together from all genres of music giving their blues band, Hot Monkey Love, an old but new sound with a vibe and edge that honors the works of Muddy Waters, Howlin' Wolf, and John Lee Hooker, along with their original material, and more. New CD "SPEAKIN' EVIL" coming soon!
