Juniper, a four-piece pop/rock phemoneon, exploded into the midwest music scene with no shortage of fuel. Their pop-radio friendly sound is full of huge hooks, infectious melodies and catchy lyrics. It is no wonder Juniper reaches a fan base varying from eight-year-old children to middle-aged adults while crossing demographic, cultural boundaries. Juniper has managed to surge forward and gain renown in a very competitive market. As young teenagers the band met and then fell in love with music. Together they learned how to convert their love for music into a lifestyle committed towards excelling and furthering that zeal. Power-house vocalist Wendy states, I find inspriation for my lyrics from my personal experiences, then I relay all of my passion of those experiences through my melodies. To me, it is all about conveying your feelings to others so fervently that they understand the depth of your emotions...to connect with your audience, see them laugh, cry or get angry with you. With determination and a drive few artists seem to captivate Junipers hunger. In late 2006, the band released its debut album, Promise me anything, promise me everything along with its own clothing line to support their album. As a result of their great success Wendy, Evan, Jason and Michael look to further Juniper with ever-increasing energetic and crowd oriented live shows. Truly this band is unforgettable in every aspect. When a passion lies inside oneself that is so intense it cannot be ignored, then the immediacy of ones purpose has been realized (Wendy).
