ENGLISH AUDIENCE: Manuel Gutierrez was born in San Jose, Costa Rica into a family full of musicians and composers including among them Jose Maria Zeledn who composed the lyrics of the National Anthem of Costa Rica. On July 10, 1984, he accepted Jesus as his personal Lord and Savior. At that time, he began serving in various youth camps, leading worship and writing songs based on his personal experiences. In 1996, God called Manuel to full time ministry, leaving his native country and moving to the United States. The Lord confirmed Manuels ministry when he was ordained as Worship Pastor in 2000. At this time, he began his ministerial work serving in various congregations, and participating on local and international radio programs, television programs such as TBN (Trinity Broadcasting Network), Daystar and Family Christian Network in Costa Rica. He has also had the opportunity to minister at Lakewood Church and the Astrodome in Houston as well as other international conventions. He has written more than 500 songs and produces other artists under the label Lion of Judah Music. He currently serves as Worship Pastor at Community Christian Fellowship in Kingwood, TX where he has served for the last the three years. Manuel Gutierrez lives with his wife, Melissa, and their four children. Cantar Para Ti (I Will Sing for You) is a compilation of some of his best songs, with various styles to fit anyones taste in music, from latin jazz, pop, alternative rock, and classic based on the word of God.
