An intimate, acoustic folk rock, singer / songwriter CD with heartfelt lyrics and tunes performed on piano and guitar, accompanying his unique, warm vocals. 15 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Who is Marc Bosserman? Marc is a Los Angeles based singer / songwriter who is also an accomplished pianist and guitarist. He has performed professionally in Hawaii, Florida and in California, and is now concentrating his efforts on his original music. He can be seen performing at many coffee houses, bookstores, festivals, and other venues around Southern California. He has a very unique, warm sound that would fit well in a Lilith Fair type setting - if guys were ever allowed in them! His musical background began with early classical training which quickly branched out into more popular music while in High School. He has had the unique experience of working in a variety of musical settings, having played not only blues and rock roll, but also funk, jazz and more new age instrumental music as well. Whether you've heard him playing in Waikiki performing solo, or with various bands in different concerts and projects locally - you would not easily forget him. Marc's songs and vocals have been mostly compared to early Elton John music. He is currently playing at a variety of local places, in addition to raising his two children in the Los Angeles area with his wife. Keep in touch through his website! Find out where Marc is performing in town by visiting his website at marcbosserman.com. Come see firsthand this energetic, warm performer. We have priced Marc's CD "Mostly Live" so that when all is said and done, you will be paying about $15.00 for it. That's only about $1.00 a song. Our heartfelt thanks to all the many friends and fans who have purchased this CD!
