PIG hit the Jackson Hole music scene hard last summer leaving a trail of drunken revelers locked up in the local jail each Tuesday night. "It's hard to walk a strait line in the presence of this off-the-hook jamboree!" said one bleary-eyed PIG fan. Justin Smith of Mandatory Air and Barnyard Stomp has united a group of seasoned performers and encouraged a format for jamming out old time honky-tonk, bluegrass, classic country chicken fried prison songs for your listening pleasure. One Ton Pig boasts an all-star lineup including Smith on guitar and vocals, Jason Baggett from Mandatory Air on drums, Andy Calder from Fat Albert and Soul Impressions on bass, Michael Batdorf from Easy Chair Music and Lost Dogs Gathering on guitar and vocals, and ace mandolin slinger Tim Farris. The PIG regularly jams with guest performers such as Thomas Sneed, The Sibleys, Jessica Kilgore, Arron Davis, Rena Collins, and Greg Creamer. "Bringing in special guests is a great way to mix up the set list", says Smith. And pay particular attention to the original songs as Batdorf is one hell of a talent in the world of songwriting! If you can drink and dance to it we play it, says Batdorf. The PIG invites you to come down on Tuesday Nights for a good old fashioned how down, with dancing and spirits. People who are interested in Ryan Adams Sam Bush Robert Earl Keen, Jr. should consider this download.
