When Just say no, was the slogan for not doing drugs. And Michel Jackson was still sane, Detroit was becoming worse. Dirty politics and mayors werent helping, Young kids were getting pregnant and throwing babies in adoption home. Well one Family on the west side form Fenkell and Sussex, had a kid already. Living on an upper flack in a three floor home. The kid was 6, dad was 23 working at Burger king mom was 22 working as a prisoner therapist at Wayne County Prison. When mom went to go do her daily job like normal, the guard who was supposed to walk her through wasnt there he had been attack by the prison mates when he let them out to shower. Him and the other guards. Knowing a female would be coming they waited for her. When she showed up she was raped, by MANY men. Luckily she made it out alive. Broke w/ nothing, the family found out another kid was coming.broke and confused, they knew people in the neighborhood that knew a guy. A hit man. Not an ordinary hit man. He didnt plan out strategic plans to inconspicuously kill someone. He killed babies, specializing in abortion. When this Family came to him w/ this problem, he didnt hesitate. He was cheap so the family could afford it, plus it was cheaper than having a kidbut later they would find his cheapness would come w/ a price. They all thought he had done his job. Months later they realized the baby was still in her. So they had it. Not knowing what to do they gave him away to a home. A Christian adoption agency ran by nuns. They said a strange void have filled them when this baby was dropped off. Then they started saying the were having demonic dreams. Seeing the walls bleeding and hearing voices talking in tongues. Frighten, they kicked him out. He was only 4. So where did he go? The sewers. Warm, he lived there for most of his life, raised with the rats and the hobos, where he got the name T-Trash. Almost 2 decades in the sewer hes is now coming up from the underground. Word has it his family lives in the suburbs now. The search has started. Never knowing what fun, is its time to live it up. Also, living underground can have an effect on a persons mental stability. Now the chaos will unfurl..
