Country folk woven with guitar, John Denver style Love Songs 14 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, COUNTRY: Traditional Country Details: Tim's 'Country' and 'Country Gospel' music is a celebration of his life, his religion, and his family; sometimes harsh and sometimes sweet. Songs in this entire album are written and sung by Tim MacEntire. He believes his early life was a search for God - and he is thankful he found HIM as he sings in "I'D LIKE TO NOW". He honors Nancy in "I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU" and "I LOVE YOU". The 60s turmoil, rebellion and controversy show in his rendition of "NUMBERS" and "RIGHT NOW". Tim's special kind of humor shows in "I'M OLDER NOW" and "IT WAS ME". BIOGRAPHY Tim was born in Albuquerque, NM December 1, 1952. He lived twelve years in the four corners area of Farmington, NM. Before the family moved to Southeastern Oklahoma. Four brothers and two sisters joined Tim being raised in the rebellious era of the sixties. They lived in farm and ranch country and attended a small rural highschool. During highschool and his first year of college, Tim worked in his father's automotive mechanic shop. Tim joined the air force and spent four years abroad, including one year in Korea. While in the military he married Nancy on April 1, 1972. Upon completion of his military obligation, Tim completed his college education at Southeastern Oklahoma State University, majoring in math and computer science. He graduated in 1977 and began a career in computer work as Director of Data Processing at a regional medical center in Northeastern Texas. After eighteen years of building and maintaining the information systems network for the center, he retired as Executive Director in 1995. In June of 1995 Tim and Nancy started a small corporation in automotive service and repair. They are still in the business and are currently merging with another company and expanding the business to service large diesel trucks and fleets. Tim and Nancy are heavily involved in church as care pastors and teachers in a local body of believers that has a far reaching ministry. They, have two children, Melissa (28) and Melannie (23), and two grandchildren, Macie (9) and KayLee (7), all living in the same local area. Melissa and husband, Scott, live in a small town just miles from home. Melannie, currently seeking a clinical license, also works and lives near home.
