Details: Virtual Conformity combines different styles in their own mixture of electronic music on "Electric Sierra". Recorded in different live sessions, the EP "Electric Sierra" presents the outback of Arizona in pictorial songs, making a night between the beauty of nature and its sounds hearable. But Virtual Conformity always stands for surprises and so on "Electric Sierra" one not only hears well known electronic sounds but also experimental sounds and mainly acoustic instruments that fit into the songs without problems. Guitars, flutes, mexican singing and the recurring sounds of the desert are in line with the modern sounds of the electronic age. A symbiosis that captures the listener and lets him experience the nightly nature ("Moonlight On The Sand", "Somewhere Out Of Cholla") until dawn ("Tucson Dawn") directly.
