Preheadline Goes Here! Headline Goes Here! Subheadline Goes Here! RE: Short Description (Benefit)

From: Your Name Dear So & So, This section is the "open": Talk about problems the reader may be facing and start relating yourself to them. Really reinforce the pain they feel from this problem. Use a drop cap as above -- people read from left to right and drop caps have been shown to "force people" through paragraph's that contain them... so why not get this little weapon in your bag o' tricks? Subheadline Here

That Transitions Into The Imagines... The "imagines" are when you take your reader to a place they dream to be without the current pain they are experiencing... So, for example, if this is a money making product, the "imagines" might read... Allow yourself to imagine waking up tomorrow, not to the sound of that damned annoying alarm clock, but when you are rested and ready to take on the day. Now imagine, strolling 30 feet to your home office, firing up your computer and opening your emails to discover you've made $XXXX automatically -- and all while you were asleep! Etc., etc., etc. Subheadline Here That

Transitions Into Why You're THE Go-To Person... Back it up here: Describe why the reader should buy from you, who are you, you can also use testimonials here. Subheadline Here That Transitions Into The Product Introduction... Product Name & Value Here This is your product box. Here you will give some background on the product, a brief of what they will be getting, and more. Also, you will want to do a sizable list of benefits that the reader will receive by purchasing this product from you. Maybe even add some scarcity or urgency in here as well. Give them a taste of what they'll discover through the bullets below: Bullet Bullet Bullet Bullet Bullet If you have more than one component to your product, set up another box below it, and in between them add an order link as below: Product Name & Value Here This is your product box for the 2nd component. Here you will give some background on the product, a brief of what they will be getting, and more. Also, you will want to do a sizable list of benefits that the reader will receive by purchasing this product from you. Maybe even add some scarcity or urgency in here as well.
