In 2002,Johannesburg based poet, lyricist and actor Antonio David Lyons was launched onto the House music scene. His debut single, Night Fever was produced by Soul Khula (Craig Massive Troye Liley) featuring vocals by Tamara Day. Night Fever introduced Antonios distinctive styling of poetic house and smooth vocals to the SA music scene. In late 200, Night Fever was remixed by Native New Yorkers and released on the Gossip Records sub-label Undo as Saturday Night creating Antonios first international release. Saturday Night is featured on The Definition of House by Dj Fresh, The success of Night Fever was followed by Body Poetry, which was produced by Iggy Smallz and Revolution for Smallz Sweet Sounds. In 2005,Antonio unleashed searing gospel vocals on Mbusos Revenge 2,which was quickly followed up by the mellow Blue Bass, which heralded his first collaboration with jazz musician Musa Manzini. 2005 also saw Antonio pen lyrics for songstresses Andile Galeiswe (Desert Moon) and Jolene (We Cant Be Lovers). 2006 kicked off with his tribute to the late Iggy Smallz, Iggys Song featured on the latest offering from Twistyle (produced by Revolution) and Sunday Morning which featured on the 115 club compilation. Currently Antonio is creating havoc on the airwaves with Step Away, which pairs him with jazz bassist Musa Manzini. Antonios highly anticipated album Human Jewels is now available and features future classics like Suga Foot, Butterflies as well as the title track Human Jewels.
