Her material reflects her native abilities; her beautiful voice, her sensual presence and her abundant melodies. The music has its origins in her relationship with the piano. She is self taught and has played entirely by ear since she was a child. Born and raised in a small town outside of Edmonton, Alberta, this natural beauty grew up listening to Hank Williams, Bob Dylan, Billie Holiday and the Beatles. An accomplished writer from an early age, Billie previously authored a novel and a childrens book before focusing her expression on songwriting. Selected from hours of original home demos, this eight song EP combines her early influences with a graceful style. The articulate production showcases her vivid emotions and evocative appeal. In short, Billie Rainbird is a treasure.
