1980's Anthem Rock in the spirit of Springsteen, Bon Jovi, Foreigner and Journey 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: 80's Rock, POP: Power Pop Details: BOYSTOWN Boystown was a five piece rock band from New Jersey formed in 1987 and began playing the same Jersey bars that Bruce Springsteen and Bon Jovi came from. They toured across the USA and signed a record deal with AIR Records in London. The single "Way Of The World" was released in the UK in 1989 followed by a UK tour. The album was well received by critics with articles in Kerrang Magazine comparing the bands energy to The Who and lead singer David Polemeni's vocal to Paul Rogers (Bad Company), Lou Gramm (Foreigner). The band developed their sound with producer David Prater (Firehouse, Dream Theatre, Glen Burtnick)who produced seven of the tracks on this record. Oil Water and Angels With Dirty Faces were produced by Aaron Zigman (Phil Collins). The disc you have contains the core members of Boystown. They are David Polemeni, Bobby Guy, Joey Sykes, John Teto and Nelson Williams. I Need Shelter and Get Up were featured on the television show 21 Jump Street. Other songs appeared on HBO and SHOWTIME in films like A Brilliant Disguise and In The Kingdom Of The Blind starring CSI's William Peterson. In 1990 Boystown were asked by their namesake Father Flannigan's Boys Town in Omaha, Nebraska to do a concert for three thousand children. Boystown is the only rock band to ever play Boys Town. If you love Jersey Anthem Rock you will love BOYSTOWN
