Singer-Pianist-Songwriter Charles Green has that kind of arresting sound and confessional lyrics that feel like both a balm and an open wound. 9 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, EASY LISTENING: Love Songs Details: WORD HAS IT..... "Charles has that kind of arresting sound and lyric choices that make you drop your senses and surrender. Oddly it feel like both a balm and an open wound. Maybe that's what makes it so seductive and addictive." EDGE Boston - January 18, 2006 "Oxygen Love is earnest without being precious. Green has a crisp, handsome voice reminiscent of Richard Marx. In fact, Green's "Someday" recalls hit ballads of the 90's like "Hold On To The Nights". Green is a man who wears his heart, a talented one at that, on his sleeve." Between The Lines News - Detroit, Michigan - November 17, 2005 "When Charles walked into the studio and opened his mouth to sing, I had the same reaction as when Cyndi Lauper came here to record. At last someone who can really sing." Producer Jan Pulsford (Cyndi Lauper, Thompson Twins) "Charles is a strong and unique pop stylist whose vocal performances come from the heart, not any training or studio tricks." Producer/Engineer Mark Miller (Garth Brooks, Olivia-Newton John, Richard Marx, KISS, Kathy Mattea, Crystal Gayle) "Charles offers several tasty pop morsels and rousing impassioned vocals." Billboard Magazine - Continental Drift - May 26, 2001
