The "live Performance" favourites album, with a strong roots country, rockabilly retro dance theme, from yodelling songs through to 60's rockers...retro lovers dance on.... 14 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Western Swing, COUNTRY: Country Pop Details: "Heartbeat Highway" was recorded in Oct. 2004 in Sydney, Australia, with two of the Feral Swing Katz legends Stuart French (Producer, guitarist and backing vocalist) along with Michel Rose on pedal steel and dobro. The Ferals are Australia's premier western swing band. James Gillard on bass from another legendary Australian band The Flood, Garry Steele on Piano and Accordion with Rudy Miranda/Joel Davis on drum details. Spectacular backing vocals by Camille Te Nahu, Kate McCarthy and Doug Rowe. The song selection for "Heartbeat Highway" came directly from the "live performance" favourites. A very strong roots country, rockabilly retro dance theme runs throughout the music, which again spans many decades and styles in country music. There's even a couple of yodelling favourites. A self confessed "60's kid", Clelia's retro mix of songs is evocative and engaging, impeccably played by Australia's finest musicians, and true to the spirit of their genre. A fun album, a party album, a learn to dance album with all songs road tested on every dancefloor in the Northern Rivers, (Byron Bay, Australia). Australian and International Reviews for "HEARTBEAT HIGHWAY" very impressive: (full reviews: cleliaadams.com) "The heart stopper this month comes from Australia with a very simple album of pure country music. One of the best albums of true country music for this year." Jacques Dufour, Country Web Bulletin, June 2005 "If this CD doesn't leave you warm and happy, you'd be strongly advised to book an appointment with your friendly GP, because, man you've got problems." Burt Everett, Bundaberg Guardian, (Aus) June 2005 "It was almost as if her previous album "Bring It On" was an instruction, for Clelia has certainly bought it on country style for her latest release. The eleven superb performances span the generations, with 3 bonus tracks for rock and roll fans. ALBUM

OF THE WEEK" Pete Smith, The Advertiser, UK, 16 May, 2005 The world continues to embrace Clelia's pure roots country style. Massive airplay of her single in Europe "BACK IN BABY'S ARMS" (Hillcrest 23)has placed her at No. 60 on the ECMA (European Country Music Association) chart (13th July, 2005) Clelia is also on the Australian CM charts with her single, 'TALK OF THE TOWN" reaching COUNTRYTRACKS TOP 100 at No. 30, (2 July, 2005) cleliaadams.com
