Energizing, uplifting positive and a little cheeky power pop music. Made for car stereo's, dance floors and singing in the shower. Dan's infectious high vocals will have you wanting more and more and more. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Bubblegum Pop, POP: 80's Pop Details: Proof that when you really want something you make it your life mission pursue it, and get it. Thats Dan Knight. Dan has a totally optimistic can do attitude about everything, he's the driving force behind his music, and his belief in himself and all the people involved in making this first Album is just awesome! Dan was born in England in 1987, and moved to Sydney in 1995, here he made new friends, and never looked away from his goal to become a singer. Dan is involved in every aspect of his work, from the photo shoots, to the dance moves, from what to wear, how to style his hair, what sounds should go with which songs, and in fact writing the songs themselves - Dan has proudly been involved in every song on Energy. So what about Energy, the album your about to buy? Glad you asked! It was two years in the making, from the original fun one liners that turned into whole, full, cheeky and inspiring song lyrics. There were many more songs that were played with in the year and a half leading up too when we locked in the final selection and headed for the hills (literally, the recording studio where Peter Kennard our midnight producer spent hours fine tuning the sounds was in the hills out of Sydney Australia). If your wanting the heat that comes from Gay Nightclubs and Studio Disco Floors then this is just the Album for you! It wouldn't be fair if we didn't include an accoustic version of the Executive Producers favourite track, 1000 Sexy Ways, we brought in real musicians, including a saxophonist from the Australian Symphony Orchestra, live guitar chords and just Dan's pure fun voice to bring you this album, we hope you love it as much as we do! Get into his music, go from the intro that welcomes you into the Album right through the journey of fun that leaves you ready to start again, get into Energy and get exactly that - Energy!
