A little bit country, a little bit rock and roll...add a dash of soul, a little bit of folk and a whole lot of "not your average singer-songwriter." 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, ROCK: Roots Rock Details: "Coming into her own as a distinctive songwriting personality, Dani Linnetz emerges as an empowered and confident artist. Linnetz displays an impressive confidence and control of her craft, having fully harnessed the strengths of her considerable vocal gifts and mastered the dynamic of stripped-down songwriting. She catalogues a series of past and present grievances, yet skillfully avoids painting herself as the stereotypical jaded female." -Matt Fink, All Music Guide In the past several years Dani has called Los Angeles, San Francisco, and New York City all home. Each has inspired multitudes of songs and a serious inability to stay in one place too long. Not such a bad thing when you consider that in the past year alone she has toured through at least 15 of our great states all the while keeping her home cities thoroughly and regularly entertained. With influences ranging from Ella to The Cure, Patty Griffin to The Pixies and far beyond, Dani's songwriting is a comfortable mixture of rock, pop, folk, blues, and country topped with her uniquely powerful and soulful vocals. Straightforward, honest songwriting at its finest. Typical female singer-songwriter fare it is not. Dani is endorsed by Garrison Guitars (garrisonguitars.com) and is featured in their 2004 ad campaign. She is also a performing member of Indiegrrl (indiegrrl.com), GoGirlsMusic.com, and Women In Rock (womeninrock.com). She has released 3 Ep's and 2 celebrated full-length albums, The Milk and the 2004 Sly Dog Records release, Caller Seventeen. You can hear Dani on college and public radio in the majority of the US and beyond and if you haven't seen her in your home town lately, she'll be there any minute!
