Born in Manhattan, NYC, Dave Lowe began his musical training at the age of 6 with classical piano lessons for 5 years, performing in his first recital at the age of 7. In addition he played clarinet for several years in his school's orchestra and was a vocal soloist in the school choir. At the age of 11, he began composing simple pop and R&B songs for piano and vocals and collaborating with peers, who were local writers and musicians. By the age of 13 Dave was performing bands in the Bergen County N.J. area where he graduated high school after having won talents shows and performing at local dances. After graduation, Dave attended Howard University, Washington, D.C. as a Jazz Studies and Piano Major. Subsequently, he continued to write and compose songs in various genres including Jazz, R&B, Caribbean and World Fusion music. In 1990, Dave published his first song entitled, "Love So New" and became a member of BMI. Early in 1999, Dave began the "Dawn of a New Day" CD project, which was completed in 2003. Subsequently, two of his songs, "Heaven in Your Life" and "Moments Notice", were covered by HillTop Records recording artist Cody Lyons on the "America" CD project, which was released in February 2004. However, previously in 1995, he established Dimensions Unlimited Music Co., a music production and publishing entity and originated the act "Dave Lowe the Spirit of One", to promote his original material. This act ranges in size from solo performance to a 6 piece ensemble and continues to perform at concerts, clubs, restaurants and for various organizations throughout the tri-state area. Dave Lowe has also performed with a variety of musical acts and artists such as (world renowned R&B and Blues saxophonist) Lonnie Youngblood, Melvin Davis (keyboardist for George Benson) and has been mentored by Latin Jazz Piano great Hilton Ruiz (RCA recording artist). He has had vocal training with Arthur Bryant the former chairman of Essex County NJ College Music Dept. and Founder of the Essex County chapter of N.A.N.M. and Phil Thomas Jr. the lead singer of the Crown Heights Affair. Although "Dawn of a New Day", is his 1st CD production Dave Lowe is already involved in the preparation of the production of his next CD!!!
