SPECIAL AUGUST ONLY PRICE $4.99 Blues-infused grooves, great songs, great singing, great guitar - their 4th album, even better than Blue Funk. 14 MP3 Songs BLUES: Funky Blues, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: Dancing With Dolores is the fourth album of GILES. Their third album Blue Funk got rave reviews from all over the world and is being played by radio stations all over the world. This one is even better. Just try the sound bites. Most of the songs are originals, and some are already considered classics. 14 Tracks: Maria Magdalena - a self-penned classic blues song with a big guitar sound. Freedom - a beautiful re-work of the Richie Havens classic, complete with Gregorian chanting. Letter To Bush - speaks for itself. Fallen Angel - quirky and up, with great guitar sounds. Dancing With Dolores - carries the main theme of the album, love affair in a crumbling world, complete with a world-ending bomb. Gypsy Eyes - a very refreshing jam on the Hendrix classic Thats Why - features the New Orleans and the Tsunami disasters Mind Your Own Damn Business - just good clean fun and a great live favorite. Wanna Come Home, Father - introvert, moody and hypnotic. Behind Your Eyes - a simple love song, with soaring guitars added to the original rough demo, including creaking stool. Just A Shell another great live favourite, with an irresistible groove. Nutbush City Limits a re-working of the Ike and Tina Turner classic, with a great guitar sound. Bird On The Wire - a very different version of the Leonard Cohen classic, sung by a slightly inebriated Mark. Yearning - totally breaks the mould. Not a guitar in sight! A wonderful piano instrumental. GILES are a guitar-led trio, based in the North-West of England. Frontman Mark Koehorst is originally from Holland, and he writes the material. They regularly tour the whole of Europe and they are now starting to play in the States too. First stop: California and Arizona. Check out the gig list on their website. Main influences? Jimi Hendrix, Dr John, Cream, Santana, The Rolling Stones, J J Cale etc. etc.
