Blues, featuring Elvin Bishop on "M&O Blues", Jazz, Pop, Originals and some Vintage Favorites. 14 MP3 Songs
BLUES: Jazzy Blues, BLUES: Acoustic Blues
Details: I have performed many popular songs-- at high school dances and country fairs with the all girl group the Sonnelles, as a troubador in Colonial Williamsburg, at coffee houses and English pubs, in dance halls, clubs, and concerts with the Heartbeats, and long standing solo stints at hotel and restaurant bars. But the voice deep within me always emerged to write the authentic songs of my heart. Quotes from Fans: "I listened to your CD a couple of times and was very impressed. It seemed to cast a dreamy, amorous spell upon me"... David Lerner, Songwriter "A crystal voiced singer who plays a mean guitar, Mead's rendition of La Vie en Rose would have won Edith Piaf's approval"...Kathleen Dreessen, Napa Valley Marketplace "Your CD is very sweet"...Doreen, Friend .."the lovely voice of Helen Mead, one of the most popular chanteuses in the Valley"...Peter Cooper, Editor, enVee Magazine "Her singing is as delicious as our food"...Alexis, Owner ABC Baking Co. "Helen has a crystal-like quality in her strong voice and she is a dear friend to all of us who have worked with her"...Jacqueline C. Peter, Entertainment Coordinator Colonial Williamsburg "Her lusty and colorful interpretations of classics as well as her originals are ear-catching." ...Elaine Herrick, Bassist "Sensual and sexy, a pure delight to the eye and the ear"....Megan Enright, Editor, Pickin' Magazine "Helen keeps her audience's attention...she appeals to a broad spectrum and is always remembered"...Steve Lipworth, Owner The Union Hotel
