Many other GREAT musicians contributed their time and talent to this production which are too numerous to mention, but all are deeply appreciated and respected within the music industry. ABOUT THIS ARTIST: John was named after his Grandfather, Johnny "Ukulele" Kaaihue, The Worlds Most Reknowned Master Of The Ukulele. Johnnys father, Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalanianaole was the last Hawaiian Royal to be buried in Hawaii in full Regalia with a Hawaiian Royal Honor gaurd procession in 1959. The Kayes are all relatives of the Royal Hawaiian family of Hawaii. Johns father, Norman Kaye is the State Poet Emeritus of Nevada and he wrote songs for many celebrities including Johnny Mathis and Perry Como.

Johns Aunt, Mary Kaye is "The First Lady Of Rock" and the namesake of The Mary Kaye Stratocaster Fender Custom Guitar. This was the first custom guitar made by Leo Fender and the first guitar ever named after a person. Her group The Mary Kaye Trio are the Pioneers of The Las Vegas Lounge Scene. They created the first ever late night lounge act in Las Vegas. She was also inducted into The Musicians Hall Of Fame with Ella Fitzgerald and Sarah Vaughn by Louis B. Armstrong in 1961. She was also one of the top female jazz guitarists of all time. Sadly, she passed away at the age of 83 on February 17th, 2007. She was Johns mentor and mother. Johns Cousin and Brother, Jay Kaye is the Blue Messiah of Spain and one of the most flawless guitar players alive. Cousin Henry Kapono is 1/2 the famous duo named Cecilio and Kapono. He is also known as the Wild Hawaiian. John is also prolific as lead singer/songwriter of his Rock group, "The Overlords", his Country group "Branded", his Smooth Jazz ensemble, Cocktail Nation, and funk / pop / R&B band "Sensation". John is also former member of world reknowned acts, Crossfire, Deja Vu, The Urge, and Turning Point. Johns most current endeavor is as lead singer / songwriter for his Blues project "John Kaye Soul Patch LTD."
