Occasionally acoustic indie jazz band. Bright lights, smooth sounds. People like it. Do you? 5 MP3 Songs
JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, POP: California Pop Details: "What clean, pneumatic piano (Sean OConnell). What righteous swing (bassist Miguel Sawaya, drummer Miles Senzaki). What a keen choice of covers (Harry Nilsson, Lou Reed, Fiona Apple). Add just a scratch of harmonic violence, like artful spray paint, and youve got modern jazz you can play for anybody." -Greg Burk @ LA Weekly, November 2006 "The Leviathan Brothers? Why yes I have heard of them. Perhaps that's why I'm writing this biography. The Leviathan Brothers are two fine chaps I call Miles and Sean. Miles plays the drums. Sean plays the piano. They've been doing it for sometime but only recently as the Leviathan Brothers. A band the OC Weekly referred to as a "solid act". And a band the LA Times referred to as "suave". The boys are very flattered by that. When you've been typing nonsense as long as I have the flattery wanes but those kids haven't been hardened by the industry. Yet. Nonetheless, the Leviathan Brothers want to sell you a copy of their debut EP. Covers of songs by Nilsson and Lou Reed. Originals by Mr. Sean. They're all quite lovely. I have a copy of the CD myself. Perhaps you want one too?" -Eros Sinclair 08/05/06
