Jazz music from the 1995 play "Tipton," with top notch vocal and instrumental performances 6 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo Details: In 1995, The Flying Pig Theatre, a small independent company in Pittsburgh PA, produced the play "TIPTON" by Kellee Van Aken. "TIPTON" was the story of Billy Tipton, a woman who dressed like a man in the 1940's to get work in jazz bands. More than just a tale of gender intrigue, the play was also a bittersweet love story. The play "TIPTON" went on to become one of the most acclaimed productions in Pittsburgh in 1995. Meg Murray sang the vocals for the jazz project co-written and produced by Jeff Muller (Jes Grew, Eva Cassidy, Rich Chorne, Karl Straub) and the music of the play is now being re-released in CD form, with 5 original songs from the play, and an extra bonus track, also written by Jeff Muller and sung by Meg Murray, called "Carolina Whisper" from the CD "Jes Grew".
