Find out why the lead track "The 3rd of July" was #1 on the Classic MP3world wide Pop Punk Chart. 6 MP3 Songs ROCK: Punk, ROCK: Emo Details: Pop punk quartet Pensive is back with an eagerly anticipated follow-up to last year's Kids These Days. The new EP Something About the Stars is six songs strong with shrewd production by Will Salazar (Fenix TX, Denver Harbor) and is sure to grab scads of attention from savvy pop aficionados and disaffected youth alike. Something About the Stars is an engaging blend of punkish revelry and unlucky-in-love tunes, exploding with social commentary that gives away a hidden maturity easy to miss among the boy-meets-girl fun and frolic. Imagine if Nirvana had thrown some sweet harmonies and breezy hooks on "Smells Like Teen Spirit" and you'll get an idea of Pensive's infectious melodies paired with intense energy. Give Something About the Stars a whirl and see why "The 3rd of July" was #1 on the Classic MP3world wide Pop Punk chart for 76 days straight, and why hundreds of college radio stations are playing the song today! According to Impact Press, "If you like bands such as Simple Plan, Sum 41, Thursday, Thrice, Less Than Jake, and Good Charlotte, you might find this to be the best thing you've ever heard."
