The story of Remission started in the middle of Sweden, in the beginning of 1997 as a "fun project" when a bunch of friends decided to form a band and play rock music together. After a few years, the bandmembers chose to give Remission more of their time. A few changes were made in the lineup, and since 2001, the band has done about 150 concerts together. Tours have been done to Germany, the UK and The Faroe Islands. Their debut album "Including you" was released on Feedback records 2004. The band started up with four members, and after some re-constellations which included five and six members they are today four once again. Samuel Tegmyr is the vocalist, Erik Tnnng plays the bass, Martin rlandsback plays the guitar and doing background vocals, and Anders rlandsback plays the drums. For the gigs, a fifth guy is also hired to play the keyboards and sing background vocals. This year, 2007, Remission is taking a new giant step by releasing the second Remission album, "Let the Curtain Rise". With this title, Remission wants to say that they are ready to face new challenges, and to present their music, energy and message in a new, fresh way. The upcoming plans are to get out and play as much as possible so that others may enjoy the music and hear about their faith in God. And since all the members love to meet the live crowd they are really looking forward to it! Let the show begin!
